VOL. XXXIII.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, MAY 30, 1905.

NO. 26.

To The Public.

We the citizens of Stanford and patrons of the Stanford High School wish to extend to Prof. John L. Bosley our sincere thanks for the interest he has taken in all the children under his charge and for the progress they have made in the various grades. The progress and achievements of the pupils have been marvelous. We regret the fact that Prof. Bosley, Misses McKee, Bryson and Madara, of the faculty, will not teach here next session. It is Stanford's loss. Our appreciation of them, our best wishes for their success in life will never wane. Prof. Bosley has shown himself to be a courteous and affable gentleman—an honest man—"the noblest work of the Creator," a teacher of the greatest influence and possibilities in his profession. He came to Stanford and took charge of the "Stanford High School" when there were dimensions and chaos and unraveled the tangled skein, "cut the Gordian knot," restored peace, harmony and progress and made success under the greatest difficulties and commanded the confidence and respect of both the friends and foes of the Stanford High School. We hope the INTERIOR JOURNAL will publish this article and give it the widest circulation. Most respectfully and sincerely, J. G. Carpenter, M. D.; J. K. Vandersdale, T. H. Shanks, G. L. Penny, H. J. ## Pirating Foley's Honey and Tar.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. G. L. Penny.

He—My dear, I can't afford to buy you that hat.
She—Still you'd save money if you did.

He—How so?
She—Because I'll just be ill if I don't have it, and you know what doctors' bills are.

Best for Women and Children.

On account of its mild action and pleasant taste Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup is especially recommended for women and children. It does not nauseate or gripe like pills and ordinary cathartics. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels without irritating them. Remember the name Orino and refuse substitutes. G. L. Penny.

Ground has been broken at Williamsburg for the erection of a handsome college building. In fact, it will become of the finest educational structures in Eastern Kentucky. The nucleus, to which other funds have been added, was a donation from the American Missionary Association, an organization under the guidance of the Congregational church. Some time ago the academy, under the protection of the church, was burned at Williamsburg, and it was decided to erect a building of a more pretentious type, enlarge the facilities and raise the standard of the institution.

Foster Ray has filed suit in the Marion circuit court against his wife, for divorce. In his petition he states that upon separation from his wife four years ago he paid her $45,000 in consideration that she should relinquish all rights and interest in his estate. That on July 29, 1903, he and his wife became reconciled and again lived as man and wife, and after this he was influenced to deed his entire estate, consisting of about $175,000 worth of property, to his wife, which was done, providing that she pay all his indebtedness, furnish him with sufficient income and continue to live with him as wife. He claims that these provisions have not been complied with, and besides the above plea he prays that this deed be set aside and that an equitable division be made of the property according to their rights as husband and wife.

IN MEMORIAM.

Robert Whitley Lillard departed this life May 22nd, 1905. He was born near Stanford July 31st, 1819. His mother was Miss Anne Whitley, daughter of Wm. Whitley, a pioneer and well-known Indian fighter. His father was a Baptist minister and editor of the Western Recorder. Mr. Lillard began his education at Georgetown, Ky., but graduated from Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va., in 1871. After this he spent some time traveling in Europe, staying for the most part in Germany pursuing his studies. Shortly after his return he married Miss Susie Craig, daughter of Dr. John Craig, the distinguished surgeon. To them two children were given, Miss Sadie and Ashley Lillard. Less than a year ago he married Miss Fanny Gray, of Winchester, Tenn. Mr. Lillard's characteristics were strongly marked. Affable, he won many friends, candid, affectionate, true, he retained them. A Christian from early boyhood, he grew stronger in the faith as the years passed and more consecrated in his walk and conversation. "Laying aside every weight he ran with patience the race set before him, looking unto Jesus, the author and preceptor of faith." He has won the victor's crown. In his last moments he was given a vision of the beautiful lights of the eternal city, his heavenly home and the strength to declare it to those about him. He lives in the hearts that loved him. I can not say and I will not say that he is dead. He is just away. I think of him faring on as dear in the land of there, as the land of here. I think of him still as the same, I say, He is not dead; he is just away. A FRIEND.

The Interior Journal.

E. C. WALTON.

THE union of the Northern Presbyterian church and the Cumberland Presbyterians is assured by the practically unanimous vote of the Presbyterian General Assembly. The Cumberland church is the result of the action of the general assembly, nearly a century ago, in cutting off certain Presbyteries on the ground of their being unsound theologically. This unsoundness was in the general direction of what is now called liberalism, or a relaxation of Calvinism. The merger is facilitated by the revision of its creed made last year by the Northern church. There seems now to be no especial reason for the Northern and Southern church to remain apart. To facilitate the union the Northern church has voted in favor of the general principles of separate Presbyteries for different races or nationalities, which means white and black Presbyteries in the same territory. This concession to the feelings of the South will facilitate the union of the Southern with the Northern church, as to which there has been much talk, but no specific measure is pending.

THE colored ministers of Cleveland, O., resolved, after the discussion of the question that intermarriage between the whites and blacks is the only solution of the race question. This kind of proposition may do very well to agitate North of the Ohio river, where some white people are on social equality with the Negroes, but unless they want to be roughly handled they had better not deaden over the line and advocate it. There will be no intermarriage of whites and blacks in the South, even if there were no laws against miscegenation.

JUDGE RILEY, police judge of Lexington, and a veritable seeker after notoriety, made a couple of Madison county men drink a quart of fish brine the other day. They had been arrested for drunkenness and this penalty was imposed upon them. The judge thinks the liquor habit can be temporarily cured by the salt water remedy but the average man had rather keep the taste for the stuff than take such medicine to kill it.

W. L. DOUGLAS, the Democratic Governor of Massachusetts, who received a plurality in the election last fall when Roosevelt carried the State by an overwhelming vote, has announced that he will not be a candidate for re-election, as he has little taste for public office and prefers the quietude of private life.

THE plans for the new State Capitol were finally accepted Friday by the State Capitol Commission. Bids will probably be accepted about July 15. The length of the building has been increased from 380 feet to 402 feet and 10 inches, and there will be handsome approaches at either end.

THE only feature in the Ohio Republican convention was the unanimity which prevailed. Nominations for State officers were made and a platform was adopted, mildly indorsing the President's position in regard to trusts and railroad rates.

THE preliminary route of the Confederate Veterans' parade covers about two miles over the principal streets in the central part of Louisville. The parade will be the reunion feature for Thursday, June 15.

THE news received yesterday that the Japanese had routed the Russians again was welcomed with delight by the admirers of the little Japs, who for courage and cunning fighting have amazed the world.

A part of the Russian fleet is assembled near Woo Sung and the indications are that Rojstvensky has divided his squadron. At Tokio this is believed to be part of a diversion plan to draw off a portion of Togo's fleet. The Japanese are confident, however, that Togo is prepared to meet any situation that may arise.

The labor unions of Chicago evidently are preparing for a long fight against the employers. The Federation of Labor at its meeting made arrangements for holding a strike demonstration on July 5. The employers say they will have all the help they need in a few days, and the question of police protection is all that is giving them any concern.

What is apparently the only reliable news that has been received in regard to the naval fight in the Far East is contained in dispatches received Sunday at the State Department in Washington. One of these dispatches came from the Japanese government, and merely announced that Togo's fleet had held the straits. The American Consul at Nagasaki wired a report that the Russian battleship Borodino and four other warships and one repair ship had been sunk by the Japanese. A dispatch from Tsingtau says the Japanese lost a cruiser and 10 torpedo boats in an engagement off the Okla Islands, 200 miles North of the Korean Straits. Some of the dispatches construe this to mean that two battles have been fought. London papers have reports that the Russian fleet has been dispersed, several ships having been disabled, while the remainder are being pursued by the Japanese.

He is a saddle horse with five distinct gaits, fast line acting racker, good in two walks and a nice looper; very positive in his trot and canter, and in harness, great all around action, as is required for an up-to-date sire of high priced sale horse for saddle or harness. He is a sure enough harness horse, graceful, stylish and fast; can show eighties in 18 1/2 seconds; a 2:28 gait, with but little handling; did this last fall one year ago after serving 91 mares in the spring. He is possessed of wonderful nerve and speed enough to get a trotter for track use or gentlemen's roadsters; large, handsome, stylish, heavy and strong enough to get carriage horses with a kindly disposition for all purposes of a family horse. He is the horse to sire parkers, stylish, graceful, substance and docility. It has been given up by horsemen that he is one of the most uniform breeders in Kentucky. He types his colts after himself; has never sired a sorrel colt. The most profitable horse for the farmer and small breeder to produce is the horse which serves the widest range of purposes well. His colts are show colts; of the very highest type, blue string winners from the oldest to the youngest.

ALL are invited to attend the exercises of Stanford Male and Female Seminary during commencement week. The Baccalaureate sermon will be preached in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning next, by Rev. W. L. Dorgan, of the First Baptist church of Danville. Musical recital in the Seminary chapel Tuesday evening June 6th, at 8 p. m. Commencement day Wednesday, June 8th. Exercises at 10:30 a. m. in Walton's Opera House; address by Rev. A. S. Moffett, of Lebanon. O. B. Fallis, president.

WALTON'S OPERA HOUSE was comfortably filled at the commencement exercises of the Graded School Friday morning and a most interesting and enjoyable program was given. The stage was beautifully decorated with flunting and flowers and on it sat the trustees of the school, Supt. J. L. Bosley, Col. T. P. Hill, the graduates, Hubert Craig Carpenter and James Robert Newland, and Revs. O. M. Huey and Gilbert Glass. The latter gentleman opened the exercises with prayer. Miss Mary Higgins gave the piano solo, Pierette, in a highly creditable manner, after which Mr. Carpenter's oration, "Whither Are We Drifting," was attentively listened to. He is a good speaker and his essay showed much research and thought. Miss Berta Jean Penny favored the audience with a pretty violin solo, which was loudly applauded. Miss Virginia Lee Bourne's number, a piano selection, was well rendered and well received. "Men of History and Their Rewards," was the subject of Mr. Newland's oration and he handled it well. He is exceedingly easy and graceful before an audience. Miss Patsy Previtt, of Lexington, sang "My Dreams" in sweetest cadence. The address to the graduating class was delivered by Col. Thomas P. Hill, the nestor of the Stanford bar. This fine old gentleman was in his happiest vein and his wholesome advice, interspersed with wit, made an impression on the graduates that we hope they will not soon forget. The colonel was heartily congratulated on his splendid effort. Dr. W. B. O'Bannon threw a pretty bouquet to Col. Hill at the conclusion of the former's address, and he acknowledged it in a brief talk. Miss Mary McRoberts' number was the piano solo, "The Silver Spring" and her rendition of it was superb. At this point Col. Hill presented to Prof. Bosley, the retiring superintendent, an endorsement of his course as head of the school. It is largely signed, as will be seen in another portion of this paper. Dr. W. B. O'Bannon delivered the diplomas to Messrs. Carpenter and Newland in a timely speech. Rev. Huey dismissed the large audience and a successful term of the Stanford Graded School came to an end.

SIX colored applicants for teachers were examined Saturday. One got a first-class certificate, one got a second-class and four failed.

THE illustrated lecture by E. A. Fox, State Secretary of Sunday Schools, at the Christian church Sunday evening, was largely attended and greatly enjoyed. The views of the Holy Land were splendid and Mr. Fox's lecture was both interesting and edifying.

MR. W. L. MCCARTY, whose store and residence at Kingsville burned a few weeks ago, is undecided as to whether he will rebuild. His insurance will not cover half of his loss. It is to be hoped that Mr. McCarty and his family will move to his splendid farm near this place.

THE reception given at the Graded School by the faculty to the graduates, Messrs. James Newland and Hubert Carpenter, Friday evening was largely attended and greatly enjoyed. The evening was spent in conversation and an elegant light lunch was served. The commodious building was tastefully decorated and arranged and the occasion was one that will not be soon forgotten by those who were fortunate enough to be in attendance.

WE are told that Mr. Russell Dillion, of the East End, aspires to be the republican nominee for sheriff and there are many who believe he will realize his fond hopes. He married into an influential democratic family, is a clever and competent young man and will no doubt prove a formidable competitor for the nomination, it matters not who runs against him. Of course the honor will prove an empty one but if Mr. Dillion really would like to have a little race we hope he will have the opportunity of showing his speed.
